We are gratified to be able to present to our friends and patrons the "Blue and Gold Cook Book" because we believe that it will meet with the appreciation we hope for and can assure you that an extraordinary amount of time and care has been expended in collecting and editing this volume of recipes. We have found in our experience that almost every cook book which has heretofore been published has given too much space to ordinary recipes, within the ken of every experienced housewife.

Our assumption is that the lady who uses a cook book knows the ordinary rudiments of the Art of Cookery—that in turning to the pages of a cook book she does so in the anticipation of finding therein something new—something that will appeal through its very novelty.

With that end in view we have delved deeply into the question and hope that our labors have not been in vain—and that the recipients of this book can truly say they have found therein something new—something worth while.

The mistress of the home who is suddenly confronted with a houseful of company for either luncheon, dinner or supper, may turn to the menus which are provided and feel assured that any one of them is perfect in its way and will earn for the hostess the appreciation of her guests.

You will find simple recipes—and elaborate ones—chafing dish specialties—canapés and salads—all essential factors that make for the successful meal—and the height of accomplishment is attained when you augment these preparations with the zest contained in every bottle of Blue and Gold Lager.

Very truly yours,

OAKLAND BREWING AND MALTING CO.

Cooking

Cooking is the art of preparing food by the aid of heat, for the nourishment of the human body. The principal ways of cooking are boiling, broiling, stewing, roasting, baking, frying, sauteing, braising, fricasseing and steaming.

BOILING: Cooking in boiling water. Boiling point, 212 F.

BROILING: Cooking over a glowing fire.

STEAMING: Cooking over boiling water.

STEWING: Cooking for a long time in water below the boiling point. Simmering point, 185 F.

ROASTING: Cooking before a glowing fire.

BAKING: Cooking in an oven.

FRYING: Cooking in hot deep fat; deep enough to cover article to be cooked.

SAUTEING: Cooking in a small quantity of fat.

BRAISING: A combination of stewing and baking.

FRICASSEEING: A combination of frying and stewing.

HOUSEHOLD RULES—HOW TO MEASURE.

All measurements should be made LEVEL.

Accurate measurement is essential to insure good cooking.

A half-pint cup is the standard. They can be had with fourths and thirds indicated.

A cupful is a cup filled LEVEL with the top. To measure a cupful, fill lightly with a spoon, taking care not to shake the cup; then level with the knife.

A spoonful is a spoon filled LEVEL with the top. First sift the material into the bowl, dip in the spoon, lift it slightly heaping, and level it by sliding the side of a knife across the top of the spoon. Do not level by pressing it.

Half a spoonful is obtained by dividing through the middle lengthwise.

A speck of anything is what will lie within a space ¼ inch square.
WHAT COOKS SHOULD KNOW.

Allow four eggs to each quart of milk in making custards.

Allow from four to six eggs to each quart of milk in making a custard to be turned from the mold.

Rice will absorb three times its measure of water and a large quantity of milk or stock.

One ounce of butter equals two level tablespoons.

One ounce of flour equals four tablespoons.

One ounce of butter and one-half ounce of flour are used to thicken one cup of liquid in making a sauce.

Allow two level teaspoons of baking powder to each cup of flour when no eggs are used.

One cup of sugar will sweeten one quart of any mixture to be served chilled or frozen.

One teaspoonful of extract will flavor one quart of custard or pudding to be served unfrozen.

One teaspoonful of extract will flavor one quart of mixture to be frozen.

One level teaspoon of salt will season one quart of soup, sauce or vegetables.

The ordinary French dressing (three tablespoons oil, one and one-half tablespoons vinegar, one-fourth level teaspoon salt, one-eighth level teaspoon pepper, and one-quarter teaspoon of sugar) will marinate one pint of salad.

One teaspoon of water or milk should be allowed for each egg in making an omelet.

WEIGHTS AND MEASURES AT A GLANCE.

The Fountain of Good Cookery is Accuracy.

By level measurements are meant a spoon or cup filled full with dry material, then leveled off smooth, to the spoon’s edge. Flour is sifted before being lifted into the cup or spoon, then leveled, and butter is packed in solid. Use always a measuring cup divided into thirds and quarters.

OYSTER COCKTAIL.

No. 1.

1 pint small oysters, 3 tablespoons Rhine wine, 12 tablespoons catsup, Cayenne pepper and salt to taste, 3 tablespoons tarragon vinegar, Juice of 1 lemon.

Serve very cold with one-fourth teaspoonful grated horseradish on top of each portion.

OYSTER COCKTAIL.

No. 2.

18 oysters, ½ teaspoon lemon juice, 3 tablespoons tomato catsup, ½ teaspoon sherry wine, 6 drops Tabasco sauce, Salt to taste.

Wipe the oysters dry. Mix and serve in sherbet glasses. This quantity serves three people.

LOBSTER COCKTAIL.

Two lobsters boiled, cut into pieces one-half inch square. Follow recipe for oyster cocktail No. 1, substituting the lobster in place of the oysters.

Serve very cold in cocktail glasses. This serves 6 people. Crab meat can also be served this way.

ANCHOVY BUTTER ON TOAST.

4 boned anchovies, ¼ cup butter, 2 hard-boiled yolks of eggs, Paprika.

Pound the above ingredients together in a mortar until smooth, then pass through puree sieve. If the anchovies were preserved in salt rather than oil, let stand some hours in milk or water to freshen.

Small, thin round pieces of toast, buttered; then spread very lightly with anchovy butter, and on this place a carefully fried or steamed egg. Garnish with lemon and parsley.
BREADED SARDINES.
Drain the oil from large sardines and dip in cracker dust. Bake in a good oven to a delicate brown, and transfer to strips of crustless toast. Squeeze in a few drops of lemon juice on each sardine and serve, garnish with sprigs of parsley.

BUMMER'S CUSTARD.
Take half a pound of Roquefort cheese, divide into three equal parts. Rub up one-third with olive oil, one-third with Worcestershire sauce, and one-third with cognac. Mix all together until it is of the consistency of custard, and add a dash of cayenne. This is delicious served on hot toast or crackers.

CANAPE BELMONT.
Take the white meat of chicken and a couple of sticks of celery, chop them together fine and season with salt, pepper and vinegar. Let this stand a while, then squeeze dry and add two tablespoonsful of mayonnaise dressing and mix well. Take two fresh tomatoes and slice in pieces about an eighth of an inch thick, and trim some toast to the same size. Lay the tomatoes on top of this, and then spread the chicken over. Decorate with stuffed olives placed in the center. To make this look pretty serve on crisp lettuce leaves.

CANAPE CAREME.
Take half a lobster, and chop very fine with four small sweet pickles. Season with salt, pepper and tarragon vinegar. Let stand for five minutes, then squeeze out the juice, add two tablespoonfuls of mayonnaise dressing, mix well and spread over toast or small saltine crackers. This may also be used for sandwich filling by adding some crisp lettuce leaves.
CANAPES OF CRABS.

Have six round slices of bread, free from crust, and fry till brown. Have a cupful of chopped crab meat, and chop it again to almost a paste, with a tablespoonful of oil, two tablespoonfuls of grated Parmesan cheese, with salt, pepper, and mustard. Add to it at the last a teaspoonful of sherry, and with the mixture spread the slices of fried bread.

PATE a la BERNHARDT.

Take one chicken liver and boil it about three minutes. Then take two hard boiled eggs and a medium sized onion, and chop them altogether very fine and mix with enough butter to make a paste. Add pepper and salt to taste and spread on thin slices of white bread with lettuce.

CANAPE DEMIDOFF.

For Four People.

Take a box of sardines and three ounces of fresh butter, and strain through a fine wire sieve. Mix thoroughly with a whip or spoon, gradually adding four tablespoonfuls of thick cream, until a thick paste is formed. Spread the paste over toast cut in any fancy shape desired, and garnish the edges with chopped olives or fillets of anchovies.

CANAPE A L'INDIENNE.

For Four People.

Take four hard-boiled eggs and mash them through a sieve, add one-quarter of a pound of fresh butter and a pinch of curry and mix well until a thick paste is formed. After seasoning to taste, spread over toast. Take three tablespoonfuls of chutney from which the liquid has been drained and chop fine. Put a teaspoonful of this in the center of the canape just before serving.
PIMENTO CANAPES.

Pound to a paste two canned pimentos and mix with one-third cup of creamed butter. Spread toasted rounds of bread with mixture, and serve on lettuce leaves.

CANAPE a la RUSSE.

Take the white meat of chicken, and a couple of sticks of celery. Chop them together fine, and season with salt, pepper and vinegar. Let this stand awhile, then squeeze dry and add two tablespoonfuls of mayonnaise dressing, and mix well. Serve on toast. This can also be used to stuff rolls, and with thin slices of ham, makes delicious sandwiches.

CANAPE a la REINE.

To the contents of a small can of caviar, add one-half of a very small onion chopped fine, mix well, and add the juice of a lemon. LOBSTER a la BURNHAM.

This dish is always appreciated at picnics, and makes a nice change for Sunday supper.

Required: One lobster, half a pint of mayonnaise sauce, six ounces of rice, a small beet.

Wash the rice. Boil it in plenty of fast boiling, salted water until it is just tender, then pour it into a colander, wash it well under the cold water tap, then dry it carefully, either spread on a plate in a cool oven or on the hot plate.

Supposing it is for supper, it is quite easy to arrange it prettily, with the lobster in the center, the rice round as a border, and the beet root as a garnish.

In any case, remove all meat from the lobster, and cut it into large dice. Then if it is for a picnic wrap it up in a piece of waxed paper, which can be bought at any stationer's—this will prevent it from drying. Then put it in a tin or jar. Press the rice into another jar, and tie a piece of paper over the top. Peel and slice the beet and fold that also in waxed paper. Put the sauce into a bottle with a tightly-fitting cork. These jars, etc., can be safely packed into the hamper.

When required, divide the lobster into portions, arrange them in neat heaps on "woodpulp" plates, arrange a thick border of rice around, garnish with the beet and serve the sauce with it.

LOBSTER CHOPS.

2 large lobsters, boiled 1 teaspoon chopped parsley, $\frac{1}{2}$ teaspoon grated onion, 1 cup thick white sauce.

Chop the lobster meat, make a thick white sauce. Add the boiled lobster meat, then the onion and parsley. Cook thoroughly, add salt and cayenne pepper to taste. Remove from stove. Divide in heaps, about ten, on a piece of clean paper, and cool thoroughly. Form into chop shape, and roll in egg and then in grated bread crumbs. Fry in deep hot fat. Serve with a claw in each, to represent the bone. Serve very hot, with Tartare sauce.

The following sauce made from: One-half can tomatoes, one large green pepper, one large onion and one large clove of garlic all cooked well for three-quarters of an hour. When done strain and add to above. Add then the shrimps, crab meat, lobster, mushrooms and lastly the oysters, allowing all to heat until the oysters are well curled at the edges. Serve in border of rice, on toast, in patty shells or in ramikins with croutons.

Then put in the crab meat, enough to fill eight crab shells and raw egg or two, stir together well and cook until it begins to thicken, which will only take a few minutes; then pour it all on a flat dish and allow it to stand until cold. Now fill the back crab shells with the mixture, egg them over with a brush and cover with grated breadcrumbs or cracker dust. Place them in a bakingpan, put a small lump of butter on top of each, and bake in a slow oven to a light brown color, or fry them in plenty of hot lard.

Place some fresh clams into one pan, and the liquor from them into another. Prepare a mixture of broken crackers and flour in equal quantities, and dip the clams first into their own liquor and then into this, repeating this operation three times; finally dipping them into milk, and then again into the flour mixture. Have prepared some boiling lard, drop in a few clams at a time, let them fry for about five minutes, then remove them with a skimmer, place them on a strainer, drain away the fat, and they are ready to be served. The pan containing the lard should be so deep that the clams will be covered when put in.

Note—Frog legs are nice dipped in egg and cracker crumbs and fried a golden brown in hot fat.
PAN BROILED STEAK.

Pan broiling of a stake means to broil in a hot pan in place of over the coals. It should not be confused with frying, sauteing, or any such method. The hot pan should be rubbed with a piece of fat just as the broiler is greased to keep the steak from sticking, and the steak broiled in it precisely as described for broiling over the coals. The pan should be very hot at first, the steak seared on both sides, then allowed to cook more slowly, but turned every ten counts as carefully as if over the coals. In lifting to turn it put the fork in the extreme end of the steak, if a fork must be used. Any fat that runs out of the steak in cooking should be poured off in order to prevent the fried look or taste that will result if the meat is sautéed in its own fat.

SPANISH STEAK:

Take three pounds of round steak, cut two and one-half inches thick, season with one level tablespoonful of salt, a saltspoonful of pepper and butter the size of an egg. Place in the oven in a sheet iron baking pan with half a cup of water, and cook thirty minutes, then cover with a layer of sliced raw onions and cook three-quarters of an hour; add a layer of sliced tomatoes, cook until tender, sprinkle with grated cheese, and when brown serve with a gravy made from the liquor in the pan.

DANISH BEEF.

Take one pound of chopped round steak. Make little pates and fry to a nice brown in a chunk of butter. Then salt and pepper—not until then. Removes pates from frying pan—put three good sized onions sliced and add a cup and one-half of water. Let simmer five minutes. Then thicken with flour and pour over pates.
FRIZZLED BEEF TETRAZZINI.

Shave into thin slices the best smoked beef you can get. Over these pour boiling water. Leave the water on the beef not longer than a second. Place it in a colander, thoroughly draining off the water. Be careful to make this draining process thorough, for it takes away the salt taste of the beef. Then place the beef in a frying-pan in which has been melted a tablespoonful of butter and a half cupful of cream into which a heaping tablespoonful of flour has been stirred. Stir these well with the meat. Pour in last a cupful of sweet milk and season sharply with pepper. Just before milk comes to a boil drop in two tablespoonsful of sharp grated cheese. Take off as soon as milk boils.

BEEF’S TONGUE, A LA JARDINIÈRE.

Boil fresh beef’s tongue one hour; skin and lay in your roaster upon a layer of vegetables cut into dice—carrots, turnips and celery, potatoes, peas, beans, and if you can get them, button onions and small round tomatoes. Pour about the tongue some of the water in which it was boiled; cover and cook slowly for two hours if the tongue be large.

Remove the tongue, keep it closely covered and hot while you take out the vegetables with a skimmer. Thicken the gravy with browned flour. Dish the tongue, arrange the vegetables in sorted heaps about it, and pour some of the gravy over all, sending rest to table in sauceboat.

MOCK BIRDS OR BEEF ROLLS.

1 lb. round steak, or 1 teaspoon onion, chopped,
Veal steak, ¼ inch thick, 1 tablespoon pickle, chopped,
1 teaspoon salt, 2 tablespoon fat drippings,
¼ teaspoon prepared mustard, 1 pint boiling water,
1 tablespoon chopped fat, 1 bay leaf.
bacon,
Cut 1 pound steak one-quarter of an inch thick in four pieces. Flatten each piece, sprinkle with salt and pepper, and spread with bacon, mustard, onion and a speck of paprika. Roll each.

BEEF EN CASSEROLE.

2½ lbs beef, chuck or round, 1 small onion, sliced,
2 tablespoons beef drippings, Salt and pepper to taste,
1 small carrot, cut in dice, 1 cup strained tomatoes,
1 tablespoon flour, 1 bay leaf.

Salt and pepper the meat and dust with the flour. Heat the fat in a frying pan and brown the meat in it on all sides. Place meat in casserole, add other ingredients, cover and let simmer at a low temperature until tender, keeping the casserole well covered so as not to allow the steam and juices to escape. Serve hot with mashed or baked potatoes.

BEEFSTEAK WITH OYSTERS.

Broil a sirloin or tenderloin steak; season; take a quart of oysters and drain off the liquor; put into stewpan with half a cupful of butter—less butter if you have a little cream to add. Salt and pepper to season it. When this comes to a boil pour over the steak on the platter. Serve very hot.

ROAST LAMB.

Salt and pepper and dredge with flour, place on rake of dripping pan with 1 cup water in hot oven. When brown baste every 15 minutes. It will take about 2 hours to roast a medium sized roast.

Leg of lamb may be boned and stuffed with bread dressing. Serve with mint sauce, or mint sherbet.

CROWN OF LAMB.

Select parts from two loins containing ribs, scrape flesh from bone between ribs, as far as lean meat and trim off backbone. Shape each piece in a semicircle, having ribs outside and sew pieces together to form a crown. Trim ends of bones evenly and rather short and wrap each bone in a thin strip of the fat scraps to prevent bone from burning. Roast 1¼ hours or until tender, covering bones with buttered paper. Remove fat from bones before serving and fill center with peas, puree of chestnut, or mashed potatoes.

MUTTON STEW WITH RICE.

After the mutton has been cut in pieces and cooked, add four good tablespoonfuls of chopped onion, season with salt and pepper; let it cook at a slow fire ten or twelve minutes.

Then, add a dozen small carrots, a bunch of parsley, thyme, bay leaves and a mite of garlic. Moisten with a quart of water, cover the saucepan and cook gently for an hour.

MUTTON CURRY.

Fry one tablespoon chopped onion in one tablespoon butter. Mix one tablespoon curry powder and one teaspoon salt with one tablespoon flour. Stir this into the butter and onion and add, gradually, one pint hot water or stock. Cut two pounds cold lean mutton (roasted or boiled) in pieces and add to the sauce. Simmer until tender and serve with a border of boiled rice.

FRENCH MUTTON STEW.

Having cut the mutton in pieces cook it in a saucepan at a sharp fire with clarified fat or lard. Season with salt and pepper.

When the pieces of mutton are well browned, drain out nearly all the fat. Add two large soupspoonfuls of flour. Cook for several minutes and moisten with a full quart of water. Add two skinned tomatoes, or two spoonfuls of tomato puree, a bunch of parsley, thyme, a bay leaf, and a tiny piece of garlic.
MUTTON STEW WITH WHITE BEANS.

The beans must be cooked separately and in advance. Cut the mutton in pieces and cook till brown, as in the preceding method. Then add several large onions divided into four, two carrots cut in pieces and two soup-spoonfuls of flour. Let this cook several minutes and moisten with a quart of water.

Add salt and pepper as desired, two or three good tablespoonfuls of tomato puree, a bunch of parsley, thyme, a bay leaf, and a mite of garlic. Cover the saucepan and let it cook gently for about an hour. Change the pieces of mutton to another saucepan, skim the sauce in the first saucepan, strain it over the mutton through a fine strainer. Add the white beans, already cooked, and let it simmer twenty-five or thirty minutes. Skim the ragout again before serving.

In hot countries mutton often holds the taste of the wool. In such cases it is useful to boil it for a few minutes in salted water before cooking.

IRISH STEW.

Cut up two pounds of mutton, place the pieces in a saucepan of convenient size. The best meat for this purpose is from the breast, the neck or the shoulder. Cut in pieces of three to four ounces.

Add a large glass of water, then put the saucepan on the fire, cover it and let the water evaporate completely. Add another glass of water, allow it to evaporate and then salt and pepper to taste. Next add four large onions divided into quarters, a bunch of parsley, thyme and bay.

Moisten with just sufficient water to cover the meat completely. Cover the saucepan and let it boil for twenty-five to thirty minutes. Then add to the mutton two pounds of potatoes skinned and divided in four. Cover them with hot water. Season them again if you like it highly seasoned. Cover the saucepan and finish cooking. Remove the bunch of herbs before serving.

This dish is also excellent, if sliced carrots and turnips are added. In this case you must also slice up the potatoes. Be careful to put the carrots and turnips to cook fifteen minutes before the potatoes. Potatoes cooked to pieces spoil the stew.

In this method no flour thickening should be used.

SAUERBRATEN.

For six people. Take 4 pounds of rump, chuck or sirloin, pound it, put into 2 quarts vinegar with 1 onion cut into slices, 10 pepper-corns, 3 bay leaves, 3 cloves and salt. Leave there for 4 days. Turn over once in a while. After this time, take out and lard with bacon cut into pieces 1-3 inch thick and 2½ inches long. Pierce meat with a pointed knife and insert the bacon. Heat the lard and fry meat light brown, both sides, and place on a platter. Brown the flour in the lard and pour on the vinegar with spices, water and salt. Put in piece of honeycake (Pfeiffer Kuchen) if on hand, and ½ tablespoonful sugar, boil all and put the roasted meat into this gravy. The meatroast must be covered and baked in over 2½ to 3 hours while turning it, basting with gravy. One-half hour before done, pour in ½ glass red wine. When the roast is tender, finish the gravy. Put the roast on platter, take all grease off the gravy and strain. If too thick, add water; if not sour enough, add vinegar.

BRISKET OF CORNED BEEF WITH VEGETABLES.

A piece of fancy brisket of corned or saltpetered beef, say five or six pounds, should be cooked in plenty of water until tender, with two carrots, two onions, one-half a head of cabbage, two turnips and two stalks of celery. Dish up the beef on a platter, cut the vegetables coarsely, and put around the beef. Serve horseradish with it.

BEEF HASH, ENGLISH STYLE.

Cut in small dice one pound of roast beef, free from gristle, but mixed with a small quantity of the fat part. Fry one finely chopped onion in butter to a slight brown color, then add a heaping tablespoon of flour and fry together for two minutes. Then add a cup of light gravy or rich soup stock, and stir well to obtain a sauce; add the beef and a tablespoon of ketchup and a dash of Worcestershire sauce. Put this hash in a deep metal or fireproof china dish, cover it with mashed potatoes, to which the yolk of two eggs have been added, sprinkle with bread crumbs and melted butter, and bake for ten minutes in the oven so that the potatoes will be well browned.

MUTTON HASH.

Cut the meat into small cubes. Also cut into pieces of the same shape the same weight of potatoes as of meat. Season the potatoes and toss them in butter. This done, put half their quantity into a saucepan with the meat, and cover the whole with a few tablespoonsfuls of tomato sauce and some reduced meat gravy; heat without allowing to boil. Distribute the remainder of the potatoes, which should be crisply fried, over the hash, and sprinkle with a pinch of freshly chopped parsley. In hash the meat must never be allowed to boil or it will become hard.

ROAST VEAL BREAST, STUFFED.

Select a piece of veal breast and have the butcher make an opening on the underside and stuff with bread dressing or potato stuffing. Sew up ends, dredge with salt, pepper, ginger and flour; place in hot oven, in roasting pan, with two tablespoons beef or poultry fat, an onion cut fine and a little boiling water. Turn and baste roast often until brown and ten-

Strain the sauce over the veal steaks and allow them to simmer for 10 minutes. Serve on a hot platter and garnish with noodles.

VEAL CHEESE.

Prepare equal quantities of boiled sliced veal and smoked tongue. Pound the slices separately in a mortar, moistening with butter as you proceed, then pack it in a jar or pail, mixing it in alternating layers, first the tongue and then the veal, so that when it is cut it will look variegated. Press it down hard and pour melted butter over the top. Keep it well covered and in a dry place. Nice for sandwiches or sliced cold for lunch.
BAKED HAM WITH MUSHROOMS.

Take a choice cut of ham weighing about two and one-half pounds and parboil for one-half hour in cold water into which has been added one tablespoonful sugar and three whole cloves. Take from water and dot with bits of butter and put in hot oven to brown for about a half an hour. Rub one tablespoonful of flour into two tablespoonfuls of melted butter, gradually add one cupful of warm milk and all the ham gravy in baking pan. Let come to a boil, then add one can drained mushrooms, season with salt and pepper, and boil for ten minutes. Arrange on platter and garnish with curled celery. Pour over mushroom sauce.

Meanwhile scald the onions six times. Brown the butter and sugar, add half a pint of the water in which the ham has been boiled, a drop or two of lemon juice and a teaspoonful of meat extract, and stew the onions in it till brown, the sauce being just sufficient to cover them.

When the ham is done, remove the thick skin and lay the ham in a baking-pan. Pour over it some of the brown sauce (in making of which, water in which the ham has been boiled and the meat extract are employed) and some of the wine and place in a very hot oven. Add the remaining sauce and wine gradually and baste the ham with it frequently so that it receives a brown glazing. Finally, stir the red currant jelly into the sauce in which the onions were stewed, flavor with cayenne and add to the Burgundy sauce.

Place the ham on a dish, cut into slices and arrange round it different vegetables and chesnuts, macaroni, Sauerkohl and the little stewed onions.

HAM A LA TOURAINE.

Parboil the slice of ham, pour off the water, take a chunk of butter in frying pan, sprinkle a little sugar over ham and cut up one onion and fry with ham until onion is golden brown. Take out the ham and add one cup of cream to onion and let simmer and pour over the ham.

SPANISH HAM.

After boiling the whole ham, place it in the oven and cover with a soft dough or dredge freely with flour; then stick cloves at intervals over the ham, and pour into the roasting pan about two quarts of sweet milk, or less, if the ham is not a large one. Add quarter of a cup of brown sugar, season with salt and pepper and baste the ham frequently with this liquid while it is cooking. It will be found to be delicious in flavor and the remaining gravy is good to use with it. A great improvement over the plain boiled ham.

Have a marrow-bone parboiled so that the marrow can be removed with ease. Now split the sweetbreads through the center, lay the pieces on the broiler and let them cook until they are a light brown. DRESSED MEAT.

A cheap, nourishing, delicious, and easily digested meat for luncheon or tea is made by boiling a "shank-bone" of veal, one of beef, and one of mutton together until the meat will fall from the bone. Carefully remove all bone and gristle, chop fine, or put through meat cutter. Season to taste; sage and savory may be added if desired. Place half the mixture in a bread tin, have ready five or six hard boiled eggs, cut each end from them so they can be placed close, end for end, in a row on the meat in the center of tin. Break a stalk of celery into very small pieces and add to the tomatoes. Add also a tablespoonful of wine vinegar, half a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of paprika. Meanwhile half a teacupful of gelatine should have been dissolved in twice the quantity of cold water. Pour this into the pan and stir well. When all have been thoroughly mixed and softened into a blended mass, pour into a mold that has an open center. When cold pour from the mold and fill the center with chopped cold meat. Veal, lamb and chicken are delicious thus served.

This is considered the finest dressing for salads. Work one-quarter teaspoonful of cayenne pepper and one-half teaspoonful of salt into two fresh, raw yolks of eggs with a wooden spoon in a cold basin; set on ice if possible. When creamy add ten or twelve drops of the best olive oil and a drop or two of sharp vinegar or lemon juice; work smooth again, always moving the spoon evenly and in the same direction. Add the same quantity of oil and vinegar and repeat this until one pint of oil has been used up. The proper proportion is about one teaspoonful of vinegar to eight tablespoonfuls of oil. It requires patience to make this sauce a success. Mayonnaise may be made white by adding just before serving one tablespoonful of cream whipped stiff. A delicate green color may be obtained by pounding a little spinach, water cress or parsley in mortar with a little lemon juice and adding it to the mayonnaise. It is then called Ravigotte sauce.

You will need eight slices of toast, which should be brown and crisp. Butter these and lay in a deep covered dish. Turn the celery gravy over it and serve immediately. Skin boiled potatoes and quarter. Place in baking dish, with butter on top; sprinkle with the brown sugar; add the water and a little lemon juice. Brown in oven and serve hot.

BAKED PEPPERS.

Cold rice and stewed tomatoes can be made into a delicious filling for peppers by seasoning highly with spices and a little onion. These can either be baked directly or can first be fried in hot butter or olive oil, then put in a baking dish covered with a cupful of white stock and baked for half an hour or more. All baked peppers are better when cooked in stock.

well together, and spread a thick layer of nut butter over the top and bake brown.

Yolks of two eggs slightly beaten,
¼ cup fine sugar,
Grated rind of ½ lemon.

1 tablespoon butter.

Process: Wash rice thoroughly; add to boiling water with salt; cover and let cook until the rice has absorbed water. To this add scalded milk; stir lightly with a fork, cover and steam until rice is tender. Remove from range, add egg yolks, butter and sugar; spread on a shallow plate to cool. Shape in balls the size of an egg; roll in fine cracker crumbs and make a depression in each to form a small saucer; dip in egg and again in crumbs. Each croquette should be well crumbed. Fry in hot fat, drain on brown paper and place a cube of jelly one-inch square in each croquette. Serve with game.

SPINACH.

One-half peck spinach cleaned and washed very carefully five or six times, then boil tender, drain all the water off, chop very fine, put a piece of sweet butter with ½ tablespoonful of sifted flour in a sauce pan, stir until smooth and hot, then put spinach in that and make thin (not too) with sweet cream. Let boil slowly about 10 to 15 minutes.
Boil an egg hard and serve on top of spinach in quarters or grate the egg.

SPINACH COOKED IN BUTTER.

Cook the spinach leaves in a pan with salted water.
Wash them freely with water to remove the sand which they may contain completely. Drain them, press out the moisture and chop them up very fine. Heat some butter in a saucepan, add the chopped spinach, stir them up with a long wooden spoon, adding a little butter. This will work out the moisture. Season them to taste with salt and a little scraped nutmeg. Finished by adding an ounce and a half of fine butter.

SPINACH “AU NATUREL.”

Having cooked the spinach in salt water as before, wash and drain the leaves carefully, then remove all water and give them a few strokes with the knife without chopping them up. Put them into a frying pan in which you have heated some butter; salt to taste and serve very hot.

This method of preparing spinach is very much appreciciated in Italy, where they add filets of anchovies to it.

SPINACH WITHOUT WATER.

The following method is very little known and has the advantages of preserving all the nutriment in the spinach and avoiding the use of boiling water.

Having washed and drained the spinach very thoroughly, cut it up in coarse pieces and put it in a saucepan in which you have heated three and a half ounces of butter to every pound of spinach. Add salt, grated nutmeg and cook sharply.
BAKED TOMATOES.
Take as many ripe tomatoes as desired, peel and slice very thick, and put in a deep baking dish; season liberally with salt, pepper and two ounces of butter; cover with bread crumbs, and then pour over a little butter clarified by heating, and bake in a moderate oven at least a half hour. Serve hot.

BAKED TOMATOES STUFFED WITH RICE.
Select a dozen round tomatoes of the same size. Remove a piece about an inch in diameter from the blossom end of each and remove the seeds. Cook a cup of rice in a quart of well-seasoned broth, with half a green pepper cut fine. When the rice is nearly tender, add half a cup of butter and mix thoroughly, but carefully, to avoid breaking the grains. Fill the tomato shells with the rice; put back the covers, set in a baking pan, stem end down, brush over the outside with olive oil or melted butter and bake half an hour in a moderate oven. Remove to a serving-dish and pour around them a cup of highly-seasoned tomato sauce.

TOMATOES a la STANTON.

STUFFED TOMATOES.
8 fine, firm tomatoes, 1 medium sized onion,
½ ounce butter, 6 fresh mushrooms,
½ lb. chicken livers, ½ cup bread crumbs,
Salt and pepper to season, Parsley.
Wash and dry tomatoes. Cut off top without detaching if possible, so it will serve as a cover. Scoop out inside of each and place in cool place until later, having seasoned inside with a little salt and pepper. Chop onion fine; place in saucepan with butter and cook for three minutes to brown, being careful not to burn. Add mushrooms and the chicken livers chopped. Season with a little salt and pepper. Cook for three minutes, stirring occasionally. Now add inside of tomatoes, bread crumbs and chopped parsley. Cook two minutes longer, and place in bowl to cool. Stuff emptied tomatoes with mixture, close down covers, and cook for 18 minutes. Serve hot. Sausage meat or chicken chopped may be used in place of the livers.

TOMATO AND CHEESE.

Put a slice of tomato on a leaf of lettuce and cover exactly with a very thin round of American cheese; spread with mayonnaise, add another slice of tomato and put a spoonful of mayonnaise on top.

TOMATO STUFFED WITH SARDINES.

Select large ripe tomatoes of uniform size and pare them carefully with a sharp knife. Set on the ice to harden and cut out the hearts neatly, leaving the walls whole. Prepare the filling by skimming boneless sardines and laying them upon tissue paper to absorb the oil. Then scrape as you would pick codfish for balls, and work in a little lemon juice and a dash of white pepper. Toss and work with a silver fork until smooth and fill the tomatoes with the mixture. The combination of flavors is very pleasant.

HOT SLAW.

Pick off the bad leaves from head of small cabbage, slice or cut the cabbage very thin, scald it 5 minutes in 2 quarts of boiling water and drain through a colander. Mix it well with a sauce made of ¼ cup of hot vinegar, 1 cup of sour cream, yolks of 2 eggs, 3 tablespoonfuls of oil, salt and pepper to taste.
Salads

HOW TO MAKE A SALAD AND HOW TO SERVE IT.

First, all materials should be secured fresh, they must be well cleansed, washed without handling, and all water removed as much as possible. The salad should be made immediately before the meal and be kept cool until wanted. Never place a salad in the ice-box where meat is kept.

If no objection, a garlic flavor is healthy and improves all salads very much. A slight rubbing of the salad bowl with a clove of garlic or the crust of a small piece of bread rubbed with garlic and put in the salad bowl will improve the flavor of a moderate-sized salad.

Chopped fresh tarragon, chervils, or chives give a fine taste to all salads.

The yolk of an egg will give a good body and improve all salads. To make a good dressing you must have good oil and vinegar. Olive oil and red wine vinegar are preferred. If you cannot get red wine vinegar you can add a wine glass of red wine to a quart of dressing, which is made of white wine or cider vinegar. If you run short of oil use melted butter, cream or some gravy of some kind of roast meat, mix with the yolk of an egg. If you run short of vinegar the juice of two lemons to half a wine glass of red wine will answer the purpose. If your oil gets cloudy or frozen, add a teaspoonful of salt to a quart and it will clear inside of twenty-four hours.

SALAD POINTERS.

Potato salad is best made of warm potatoes.

Mix salt thoroughly through your minced potatoes before adding the dressing to prevent flat taste.

Wash the lettuce under cold running water and it will be crisp.
Vegetables for salads should be thoroughly dry or the dressing will not stick.

All salads should be thoroughly chilled.
Stir mayonnaise with an egg beater if hurried.
For smooth dressing, blend with a fork, not a spoon.
Mix the flour and sugar together dry for dressing, then add boiling water and stir.
If dressing curdles, add cold water and stir quickly.
If the vinegar is heated before adding to the dressing, it will not curdle.
If mustard is mixed with milk instead of water it will not dry out.
If a slit is made through the cork of the olive bottle and the bottle propped at the right angle, the oil may be dropped into the dressing without constant personal attention.
A Spanish proverb says that to make salad requires four persons: "A spendthrift for oil, a miser for vinegar, a lawyer for salt, and a madman to stir it up."

SAVARIN—French Coffee Cake.

1 teaspoon salt,

1 cup milk,

\(\frac{1}{2}\) oz. compressed yeast,

\(1\frac{1}{2}\) cups butter,

Rind of 1 lemon,

2 tablespoons maraschino.

add the other ingredients, beat until very smooth and light. Butter several large ring forms or moulds, sprinkle with chopped almonds and half fill with the dough. Let rise to the top of the mould and bake in a moderate oven. When baked, turn from the mould and pour over the following syrup: Cook two tablespoons sugar, one tablespoon water, when boiled add one tablespoon maraschino.

APPLE STRUDEL.

Take one pint of flour, sift it into a bowl, make a hole in the center of the flour, pour in half a cupful of warm water, four ounces of butter, two whole eggs and two yolks and a pinch of salt. Stir this slowly making a smooth dough. Cover up the dough and keep in a warm place until you have pared half a peck of apples; cut or shave them very fine. Now cover your kitchen table with a clean table cloth, sift flour all over it and roll out your dough as thin as possible. Then use your hands, placing them under the rolled dough, and stretch it gently, very gently so as not to tear it, walking all around the table as you do this to get it even and thin as tissue paper. Pour a few tablespoonfuls of melted butter over the dough, mix the apples, some brown sugar, cinnamon, seeded raisins and a little citron cut fine. Take hold of the table cloth with both hands at the corners, lift it and begin to roll the strudel. After it is rolled place in a buttered pan, put flakes of butter on top. When half baked pour a cupful of cream over it and finish baking. Bake about half an hour.

HUNGARIAN STRUDEL.

Put into a mixing bowl about one and one-half coffee cups of flour (good measure); add sufficient warm water to make a paste soft enough to beat with the hand (not knead), until it no longer sticks to the bowl. This will take only a few minutes. Now take a table cloth, spread on half of a dining table, sift flour over it thinly, but have the cloth thoroughly covered with it. Put the dough on this and roll, especially thin in the center, until it is as large as a small tray. Now stop rolling and begin to stretch it. It will not stretch well unless warm. If you have allowed your dough to get cold take a hot frying pan and hold it over the dough for a few moments, when it will stretch easily. This stretching is rather a difficult proceeding, as you must be careful not to break holes in it, and it must be almost as thin as tissue paper. A thick dough is to be avoided, neither must you leave thick edges. After it is sufficiently stretched strew over it thickly and evenly six or eight finely chopped tart apples, currants, raisins or both, finely shaved citron or orange peel (candied), grated almonds, sugar and cinnamon, and, lastly, a cup of melted butter, free from all salt, poured over all. Now take an edge of the table cloth firmly in both hands and roll it quickly from you; in a moment you have before you a large thick roll, which form into a round or oblong shape, according to the pan in which you wish to bake it. The only way to put it into the pan without breaking it is to take hold of the cloth and whisk the strudel into the pan upside down. Pour more butter on top and place in a pretty warm oven; baste with butter that accumulates in the pan and bake to a golden brown. Eat warm.

ALMOND PRETZELS.

1 cup butter, 2 cups flour,
1 cup sugar, 2 yolks and 2 whole eggs,
    ½ lb. almonds, unblanched and ground.

Cream butter and sugar, add eggs and the rest of the ingredients. Mix and knead into one big roll. Let stand in

\[ 3 \text{ oz. butter}, \quad 1 \text{ tablespoonful dry breadcrumbs}, \]

\[ 2 \text{ tablespoonfuls milk}, \quad 1 \text{ egg}. \]

Mix the butter, sugar and flour well, make a hollow in the middle and pour in the egg, beaten up with the milk. Mix thoroughly and let the paste stand 15 minutes in a cool place. Then roll out about \( \frac{1}{3} \) inch thick and cut into rounds. Place a little edging of the paste on each round to form a rim. Sprinkle with dry grated breadcrumbs, fill with cherries, dusted over with sugar, and bake in a hot oven. Sprinkle well with sugar before eating.

DATE MACAROONS.

\[ \frac{1}{2} \text{ lb. almonds}, \quad \text{Whites 4 eggs, well beaten}, \] stiff; add the dates, then the almonds and mix very thoroughly. Drop mixture with teaspoon in small piles, on tins one-half inch apart. Bake 50 minutes in a very slow oven or until dry. They are done when they leave the pan readily.

Fig Macaroons. Made same as date macaroons, using dried figs, softened by steaming, in place of the dates.

MACAROONS.

\[ \frac{1}{2} \text{ lb. sugar}, \quad \frac{1}{2} \text{ lb. sweet almonds, grated,} \]

HOW TO USE THE CHAFING DISH.

A chafing dish ought to be of extra heavy tin or some other metal tinned or nickel-plated. A large flame alcohol lamp should be underneath so as to have a good heat if needed, or a smaller lamp only to be used if light heat is required. In cooking oysters or similar articles a brisk heat is necessary, for making rarebits less fire is used. The blazer with the waterpan underneath is more for the purpose of heating ready-made things or keeping them hot, and only good for preparing articles which require little cooking.

CHEESE DELIGHT.

Chop five ounces of soft cheese into small bits and put into a chafing dish with one egg, a level tablespoonful of butter, half a teaspoonful of salt, a pinch of cayenne, a level teaspoonful of mustard and five tablespoonfuls of milk. Cook over boiling water until the cheese is soft and creamy, then set where it will keep hot without cooking for a few minutes. Toast five slices of bread and keep hot. Poach two eggs for each slice. Spread the cheese mixture quickly over each slice of toast and place over this two eggs on each piece. Have a little butter, salt, pepper and mustard rubbed together, put a tiny bit on each egg and serve at once. This makes a delicious tid-bit for “unpremeditated” suppers.

WELSH RAREBIT.

Mix together in the chafing dish one wine-glassful of ale, one teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one-half teaspoonful of English mustard. Then add one-half a pound of cheese cut fine, season with salt, black and cayenne pepper. When the liquid gets boiling hot and the cheese begins to melt stir it up vigorously with a spoon so it will become very smooth, let it come to a boil, stirring it all the time. Then pour it over some toasted bread, plain or buttered. Crackers can be substituted if no toast is on hand. If the rarebit is wanted short (not stringy), the yolk of an egg can be added at the last moment. Serve with crackers.

GOLDEN BUCK.

Prepare the Welsh rarebit as before, pour it over three thick slices of toast and put a poached or dropped egg on top of each piece.

YORKSHIRE BUCK.

Prepare the rarebit the same way as Golden Buck, adding two slices of broiled or fried bacon, one on each side of the poached eggs.

MACARONI RAREBIT.

Into a chafing dish put one teaspoonful of butter. When hot add one small cupful of cold boiled macaroni cut fine, to it add one small cupful of grated cheese and two well beaten eggs. Dust with pepper. Cook until set, and serve on toast. If cheese is fresh add a saltspoonful of salt.

CHICKEN LIVERS a la OSCAR.

Boil for twenty minutes a heaping cup of chicken livers. Cut them up into small pieces and add a tender sausage cut in thin slices. Mix well together and add one tender onion chopped very fine, several slices of Spanish peppers, a teaspoon of curry powder and some salt and pepper. Have in the chafing dish a half cup of olive oil very hot and into this pour the mixture. Cook until the sausage is done and serve on hot toast with sprigs of watercress.

CHICKEN LIVERS WITH CURRY.

Clean and separate six chicken livers. Dip in seasoned crumbs, egg and crumbs, and saute in butter. Remove livers, and to fat in blazer add two tablespoons of butter and one-half tablespoon finely chopped onion. Cook five minutes, add three tablespoons flour mixed with one-half teaspoon curry between one-fourth teaspoon salt, and one-eighth teaspoon paprika. Strain sauce over livers.

CRABS A LA RICHMOND.

Cook a cup crab meat in one teaspoon butter and two tablespoons sherry wine, two minutes. Melt two tablespoons butter, add two tablespoons flour, and pour on gradually one-third cup milk and one-third cup clam broth. Add crab meat and the soft part of eighteen clams to sauce. When thoroughly heated, season with salt and paprika. Just before serving add one tablespoon brandy and the yolk of one egg slightly beaten.

LYONNAISE TRIPE.

Wipe tripe and cut in pieces two inches long by one and one-half inches wide; there should be three cups. Put in blazer cover, let stand for one minute that some of the moisture may be withdrawn and drain. Cook two tablespoons butter with one tablespoon finely chopped onion until yellow, add tripe and cook eight minutes, using more butter if necessary. Season with salt and pepper and sprinkle with finely chopped parsley.

DEVILED SCALLOPS.

Clean one pint scallops, heat to boiling point, drain, and reserve liquor. Melt three tablespoons butter, add two tablespoons flour, mixed with one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon mustard, and a few grains cayenne. Pour on gradually the reserved liquor. When sauce begins to thicken, add the scallops. Serve with brown bread sandwiches.

LITTLE PIGS IN BLANKETS.

Choose large plump oysters and wrap about each a thin slice of fat bacon, pinning it with a wooden toothpick. Lay them in the heated blazer and cook until the bacon is crisp.
MUSHROOMS RUSSELL.
Take two pounds of mushrooms. Peel them and place in a chafing dish in which a cup of best butter has been melted. Add one Spanish onion sliced fine. Allow to cook one-half hour in tightly covered dish. While cooking, add salt and pepper. Before removing from flame, add one-half pint of pure cream. Serve hot on toast.

RECHAUFFE OF DUCK.
Warm in a blazer two tablespoonsfuls of butter, two tablespoonsfuls of currant jelly, and a gill of Sherry, Madeira or Port. Lay in this sauce pieces of cold duck, season with salt and pepper, cook five minutes. This is an excellent sauce in which to warm wild duck or other game.

OYSTERS a la SOMERSET.
Put in chafing dish a piece of butter the size of an egg, add a heaping teaspoonful of finely chopped onion, fry to a light yellow color, add three heaping tablespoonsfuls of finely chopped celery and two cups of oysters in their own liquid, boil till done, season to taste, then add three heaping tablespoonsfuls of fresh bread crumbs, half a gill of cream, and half a teaspoonful of chopped parsley. Let come to a boil, and serve. Enough for four.

BARBECUED HAM.
Cut rather thick slices of cold boiled ham, lay them in the blazer, and let them fry in their own fat. When they begin to crisp, draw them to the side of the dish, and add to the fat in the pan a tablespoonful of vinegar, a small teaspoonful of white sugar, a saltspoonful of mustard, and a little pepper. Mix well, put the meat into the sauce—bring this to a boil and cook two minutes.

This is extremely good.
SARDINETTE a la WELSH.

Take four cans of sardines, one pint bottle of ketchup, one can of French peas. Put them all together in a chafing dish, using the blazer. Serve on crackers or toast.

STEAK MANSFIELD.

The late Richard Mansfield was a fine cook, and some of his favorite recipes have been preserved by his friends who were his guests at times, and who often watched him preside over the chafing dish. The following was one of Mr. Mansfield's most favored dishes:

Cut a piece of suet about the size of an egg into small bits and put it in the chafing dish. Also add the same amount of butter. When this melts and is hot, place in the dish a fine porterhouse steak about three inches thick. It is better to have the bone removed, if serving for many persons. Let the steak get hot on both sides, and then cut the surface with a sharp knife. Turn the steak about every five minutes, and baste with the juice, the same as with chicken. As it begins to cook, add the following: One-half of a green pepper, the heart of a piece of celery and a bit of parsley, all of which have been chopped fine. Also, some stuffed olives and some mushrooms, cut in two. Sprinkle the steak with paprika while cooking, and salt after taking out. Mr. Mansfield used to rub the dish with garlic before beginning to cook the steak. About twenty-five or thirty minutes are required for the process, but it is worth trying.

Cheese Dishes

CHEESE BALLS (No. 1.)

1 cake Neufchatel cheese, 6 dashes Tabasco sauce,
Piece of butter half the size 1 tablespoon cream,
of cheese, ¼ teaspoon salt.
Mix all well together in a bowl and form one large ball or small ones for each person, and roll in chopped pecan nuts.

CHEESE BALLS (No. 2.)

The whites of two eggs, two ounces of grated cheese, salt, and cayenne. Beat the eggs to a stiff froth; stir in the cheese, salt, and cayenne pepper. Shape the mixture into balls the size of marbles, and drop them into boiling lard. Fry them for about five minutes till a golden brown, drain well, and serve with grated cheese.

CHEESE ROULETTES.

Season with salt and cayenne a cupful of dry grated cheese—Parmesan is preferred. Whip the whites of three eggs stiff and mix in the cheese. Flour the hands and mold the mixture into balls the size of walnuts. Drop into boiling fat and fry to a golden brown. Lay on crumpled paper to absorb the grease. Serve hot.

PARMESAN CROQUETTES.

These may be prepared, and even fried the day before, and then carefully heated in the oven when required.

Required: Quarter of a pound of grated Parmesan cheese, two ounces of bread crumbs, one ounce of butter, one egg and two extra yolks, salt and cayenne, crumbs for coating, frying fat.

Mix together the crumbs, cheese, warmed butter, and seasoning. Then add enough beaten yolk to bind them all in a soft paste, but it must be sufficiently stiff to shape easily.

Make the mixture into small balls, like large marbles.
Brush these over with beaten egg, then coat them with crumbs. Repeat this egging and crumbing, so that they have two coatings.

Have ready a pan of frying fat. When a bluish smoke rises from it put in the balls two or three at a time, and fry them a pretty golden brown. Drain them well on paper and serve them piled up on a lace paper on a hot dish.

STUFFED CELERY.

Take some celery stalks, one head for each person, clean and peel. Cut in four pieces lengthwise so that the pieces will hang together at the root. Mix together one teaspoonful of Roquefort and two teaspoonfuls of cream cheese, season with paprika, and add a pinch of finely cut chives. Stir until a smooth paste is formed and then put in a paper cornet. Take the celery and lift leaf by leaf and squeeze the cheese between the celery stalks. Served on chopped ice covered with a napkin.

1 cup milk, 1 egg,
½ cup soft, mild cheese in ½ teaspoon salt,

CRÈME AUX ALMONDS.

Take one cream cheese, one-quarter of a pound of salted almonds crushed, and two liquor-glasses of Kirschwasser. Mix well and serve in croquette shape.
ROQUEFORT AU PORT.

Take an eighth of a pound of Roquefort cheese, a small piece of butter, a tablespoonful of Worcestershire sauce and two tablespoonfuls of heavy port wine, add paprika pepper to taste and mix the whole together well. Mix this with cracker dust and serve in the shape of croquettes.

FROMAGE ROMANESQUE.

"Fromage Romanesque" is enough to make an epicure's mouth water. It is as delicious a cheese dish as one could imagine.

The cheese used in its making is the common cream or Neufchatel variety and two of the second sized cakes are used for this recipe—that is, the size we call the ten-cent size in this country. The other ingredients are three eggs, three-quarters of a cup of very thick, sour cream; five teaspoonfuls of clear honey and half a teaspoonful of salt. First, beat the cheese and sour cream together until smooth as paste; then add the honey and blend in carefully, then the salt, then the well-beaten yolks of the three eggs, and lastly the whites beaten stiffly.

Beat the whole mixture vigorously for a few minutes and then either pour into cases of thin puff paste and bake twenty-five minutes in a brisk oven or bake in an oiled or buttered baking dish, without pastry, which makes it a sort of cheese souffle, which pulls far up and should be served with a cheese sauce made by beating together equal parts of thick, sweet cream and cream cheese. These should be first blended with a spoon and then beaten with an egg-beater. Sometimes sprinkle in chopped olives in the sauce.
CHEESE EN SURPRISE.

The following recipe will be found most appetizing when served at one’s dinner in place of the usual Roquefort, Neufchatel, or Camembert, and will prove extremely tasty for the little midnight lunches. A little time and patience are required in preparing it, and to some it may seem a trifle expensive, but I find that I can prepare enough to serve six people at a cost of about 40 cents. Mix thoroughly together in a bowl one 10 cent cake of fresh cream cheese with one-quarter of a pound of Roquefort. Add a pinch of salt, a little pepper, a dash of paprika, a scant tablespoonful of Worchester sauce, a lump of butter, and a tablespoonful of thick rich cream. Use one green and one red pepper (see that these are firm and fresh) and take half of the green pepper and about two-thirds of the red. and with a 10 cent bottle of olives (stuffed ones are also nice for this purpose) mince all finely together, and stir this mixture into the cheese, seeing that it is evenly scattered throughout the cheese. Take the whole and form in mound shape upon an attractive cheese dish; then take the remaining half of the green pepper and cut in uniform strips, and garnish four sides of cheese. Take rest of red pepper, cut in star shape and place on top. When finished put immediately in the ice box and leave there until served. To those who are fond of cheese this will be a treat.

BREAKFAST DISHES.

FRENCH PANCAKE.

3 eggs, separated, 1/2 teaspoon salt,
1/4 cup flour, 1 cup cold water.

Stir yolks with the salt and flour, until smooth, add milk gradually, then fold in the beaten whites. Heat pan, add 2 tablespoons butter and when hot, pour in pancake; let cook slowly and evenly on one side, finish baking in oven.

GERMAN PANCAKE.

2 eggs, 1/2 teaspoon salt,
1 cup milk, 2 1/2 tablespoons flour,
2 tablespoons butter.

Beat eggs very thoroughly without separating the yolks and whites; add salt, sift in the flour, add the milk gradually at first and beat the whole very well. Melt 1 tablespoon butter in a large frying pan, turn mixture in and cook slowly until brown underneath. Grease the bottom of a large pie plate, slip the pancake on the plate; add the other tablespoon of butter to the frying pan, when hot, turn uncooked side of pancakes down and brown. Serve at once with sugar and lemon slices or with any desired preserve or syrup.

Or, when the pancake is nicely browned on the one side, the remaining tablespoon of butter may be heated in another spider and the uncooked side of the pancake turned down to brown slowly on this frying pan. Slip carefully on large heated platter and serve at once.
To make sandwiches is a plain affair, but a good many do not know how to make them properly and attractively. If the bread is cut thin and of an equal thickness and properly buttered and the meat free from gristle and fat, and cut in nice thin slices, and furthermore, the whole sandwich carefully trimmed into a nice square shape and then cut diagonally, served on a plate covered with a napkin, it will always be appreciated. When, however, one gets two chunks of bread with thick pieces of meat between, the butter unevenly spread on the bread, it will rapidly diminish the appetite.

Ham, tongue, roast beef, corned beef, lamb, chicken, veal and ham, and turkey sandwiches are all made in the same plain way,—the bread and meat cut thinly and the butter softened so it will spread evenly over the bread. The fresh meat sandwiches are seasoned with salt. With ham, tongue and beef a little French or English mustard may be added according to taste.

CLUB SANDWICH.

Toast two slices of bread and cover them thinly with mayonnaise dressing. Place two slices of chicken, white meat only, on one piece of toast. On top of this place one or two lettuce leaves and sprinkle some salt over it. Put the other piece of toast on top of this, and press the sandwich together a little and trim nicely, and cut the sandwich in two triangles. Serve warm if possible.

Sometimes thin slices of broiled bacon, sliced tomatoes and even sliced pickles are added to the club sandwich. Bacon is acceptable, but if the two other articles are added the combination is superfluous.
SANDWICHES.

CHEESE SANDWICHES.
Melt one teaspoon butter in a saucepan, add one cup grated cheese; season with one-fourth teaspoon paprika, one-fourth teaspoon mustard, one-half tablespoon Worcestershire sauce, a few drops onion juice; stir until the cheese is melted and smooth, then add two raw egg yolks beaten and diluted with one cup thin cream or milk. When cold, place between slices of nut, entire wheat, rye or white bread.

CHEESE SANDWICHES, HOT.
Grated American or New York Cream Cheese, Butter.
Butter thin slices of bread very lightly, sprinkle generously with the cheese; press two slices firmly together, cut in half and toast quickly. Serve at once, with coffee.

Or, toast circular pieces of bread, sprinkle with a thick layer of grated cheese, seasoned with salt and cayenne. Place in shallow pan and set in oven to bake until cheese is melted. Serve at once.

CHEESE AND ANCHOVY SANDWICHES.
2 tablespoons butter, 1 teaspoon vinegar,
1/4 cup grated American Salt, paprika, mustard, cheese, Anchovy essence.
Cream the butter, add the cheese and vinegar. Season and spread between thin slices of bread.

RUSSIAN SANDWICHES.
Rub to a paste one and one-half rolls Neufchatel cheese; to this add one-half cup chopped pecans and the finely chopped meat of twelve olives; season with salt and cayenne to taste; moisten mixture with mayonnaise dressing to the consistency to spread between Saltines, Zephrettes or any crisp cracker. Press them firmly together.
SALMON SANDWICHES.
Mince salmon very fine and season with salt and paprika. Mix into a paste with melted butter. Make a highly seasoned French dressing of vinegar, oil, pepper and salt and pour over cucumbers which have been peeled and sliced very thin. Set them on the ice until chilled. Spread thin slices of bread with salmon mixture and put a slice of cucumber between them. The bread may be spread with the salmon mixture a half hour before serving, but the cucumber slices should not be added until the last minute.

AN INDIAN SANDWICH.
Cut the white meat of a cooked chicken in small pieces. Take the same quantity of boiled ham and four freshened anchovies and mince. Mix two cups of veloute sauce with one dessertspoonful of curry powder thinned with a little water. Stir over the fire until it becomes a thick sauce. Add the chicken and the ham and the juice of half a lemon. Cut slices of bread and fry them in butter until light brown. Spread on the mixture and cover the sandwiches, serving while hot.

CHICKEN AND NUT SANDWICH.
The white meat of a chicken which has been roasted or boiled is chopped very fine, and to one cupful of it is added a quarter of a cup blanched almonds or English walnuts, also chopped fine. This is softened with sweet cream to a paste that will spread easily on the bread. It can be used on either graham or white bread.

SHRIMP SANDWICHES.
Pick one-half pint of shrimps, put them into a mortar with two or three ounces of butter, season with a little salt and cayenne pepper, and pound them to a paste, moisten it with a few drops of tarragon vinegar. Cut some rather thin slices of bread and butter, spread half of them with the paste, fold the remaining half over these, and press them lightly together. Cut the sandwiches into fingers or quarters, arrange them on a folded napkin, or an ornamental dish-paper, garnish with parsley, and serve.

BEEFSTEAK SANDWICH WITH MARROW.
Make eight slices of toast. Broil a small sirloin steak and parboil about two ounces of marrow of beef. Chop the marrow and spread on four pieces of toast, cut the steak in very thin small slices and cover the marrow with it, spread a little mustard on the other four slices of toast and cover the meat so as to finish the sandwich. Place in the oven for a few minutes so as to serve hot. Season with salt and black pepper.

MELBA SANDWICHES.
Stone half a dozen olives and chop very fine, add a tablespoonful of thick mayonnaise dressing and a teaspoonful of finely chopped pecans or walnuts. Spread between two slices of bread—graham bread may be used.

TARTAR SANDWICHES “PIQUANT.”
Chop together three large sardines, a cupful of boiled ham, ground, and three small cucumber pickles. Add a teaspoonful of French mustard, or omit the cucumber pickles and add some chow-chow with a little mustard. Mix to a paste with a little ketchup and vinegar or lemon juice.

POTATO AND HAM SANDWICHES.
Into a pint and a half of well seasoned mashed potatoes stir two eggs without beating. Spread two tablespoonfuls of this potato out smoothly, and lay on it a slice of neatly trimmed boiled ham. Cover this with potato, pinch the edges well together, lay in boiling lard and fry a delicate brown. Scraps of any kind of meat minced and seasoned may be used instead of the slices.
DANISH SANDWICHES.

To make Danish Sandwiches which are very appetizing, take thin slices of pumpernickel and spread thickly with butter. On this place the meat or fish, etc. Cold roast beef, veal, sardines, hard boiled eggs, chopped raw beef, cold lobster, caviar and sturgeon are used mostly in making these sandwiches. The meats should have some thin slices of cucumber or horse radish on top, the lobster a little mayonnaise, and onion on the caviar and chopped beef in order to make a dainty appearance. The crusts should be removed from the pumpernickel and the sandwiches placed on a large platter. Serve with this celery stuffed with Roquefort cheese, with a little paprika sprinkled on the cheese.
Eggs, Omelettes and Souffles

GENERAL RULES.
A stale egg rises in water; fresh eggs are heavy, and sink to the bottom. Wash eggs as soon as they come from the store. Eggs should never be boiled, as that renders them tough and difficult of digestion. They should be cooked just under the boiling point.

STEAMED EGGS.
Break an egg into a buttered cup or in patent egg steamer. Sprinkle it with salt and pepper. Put cup or cups into a steamer and cook until the white is set (three to five minutes). Remove carefully from cup with teaspoon. Serve on toast garnished with toast points.

SOFT COOKED EGGS.
Have the water boiling, drop in the eggs gently, and place on stove where they will simmer but not boil, for from five to eight minutes.

HARD COOKED EGGS.
Place the eggs in boiling water, move to a warm place, where they will simmer, not boil, and let cook thirty minutes. Remove shells, cut in quarters lengthwise, and pour browned butter over them and serve hot.

POACHED OR DROPPED EGGS.
Fill a pan with boiling, salted water. Break each egg into a wet saucer and slip it into the water; set the pan back where water will not boil. Dip the water over the eggs with a spoon. When the white is firm and a film has formed over the yolk, they are cooked. Take them up with a skimmer, drain and serve hot, on toast. Season with salt.
SCRAMBLED EGGS.

3 eggs. 1-3 cup milk or water.
½ teaspoon salt.  spk. pepper.
1 teaspoon butter.

Beat the eggs slightly, add the milk and seasoning. Cook in a hot, buttered frying pan, stirring constantly until thick. Serve hot.

SHIRRED EGG.

Butter an egg shirrer or small vegetable dish, cover bottom and side with fine bread crumbs. Add an egg very carefully, cover with seasoned bread crumbs, and bake in a slow oven until white is firm and crumbs are brown.

FRIED EGGS.

Fried eggs are cooked as buttered eggs without being turned. They are usually fried with bacon fat, which is taken by spoonfuls and poured over the eggs. Do not have the fat too hot as that will give the egg a hard, indigestible crust.

BUTTERED EGGS.

Melt one tablespoon of butter, slip in an egg and cook until the white is firm. Turn over once while cooking, and use just enough butter to keep it from sticking.

OMELET A LA PAYSANNE.

The name of this dish, "a la paysanne" ("in the country-woman's style") suggests at once that it is a dish suited to modest households.

The following are the quantities of materials required for six persons: Twelve fresh eggs, three and a half ounces of lean bacon cut in dice, about five ounces of butter, a tablespoonful of chopped chives, five ounces of potatoes cut in dice, salt and pepper.

Put the bacon in a frying pan with an ounce and a half of butter and put on a fire not very hot. As soon as the bacon begins to fry add the potatoes cut in dice and let them cook at a slow fire. When the potatoes are cooked add the chives or parsley.

While waiting for this you must break the eggs, to which you add the salt and pepper necessary, taking into consideration the salt in the bacon. The eggs must be thoroughly beaten up to make a perfectly uniform liquid of them. Then add the bacon and potatoes.

If you have only one frying pan at your disposal, it will be advisable to wipe it with a clean cloth in order that the omelet may not stick to the bottom. Then put the frying pan back on a sharp fire, keeping your three and a half ounces of butter in reserve. As soon as the butter begins to take a light brown color, pour the eggs into the boiling butter. Shake the frying pan and stir the eggs with a fork. Then turn the omelet as you would a pancake. A few seconds will suffice to finish cooking the omelet. Slip it immediately on a dish and serve at once.

FRENCH OMELETTE.

Break four eggs into a bowl; season with one-half teaspoonful salt, beat with an egg beater four minutes. Melt one tablespoon butter in a pan, when hot pour in the eggs. Draw with a fork from edge of pan to the center. When the omelette begins to get firm let it remain a half a minute without stirring, then fold it over each side so that the two sides meet in the center. Turn omelette on to a hot dish.

With a heaping tablespoonful of butter and a glass of rich milk make a thick cream sauce, let boil a few minutes, then add two tablespoonfuls of grated Parmesan cheese and a small piece of table butter, season with salt and paprika pepper. Stir until well melted. Put four eggs in a flat baking dish, pour the sauce over them, sprinkle with a little grated cheese and bake in a hot oven for about two minutes until a nice golden color: Enough for four if only one egg is required.

1 cup milk.  \( \frac{1}{2} \) teaspoon salt.

Stir one-quarter of the milk with the flour and salt mixed, until smooth, add the rest of the milk and pour and stir over the beaten yolks, then fold in whites, beaten dry. OMELETTE SOUFFLE.
Take the yolks of four eggs, place in a bowl and add four heaping tablespoonfuls of powdered sugar and half a teaspoonful of vanilla extract. Beat together vigorously with a spoon or a small wire whisk for five or six minutes. Take the whites of seven or eight eggs, put in a bowl, and beat to a very stiff froth. Now mix the yolks and whites together very carefully, so that the beaten whites keep their firmness. Then pile the mixture on a slightly buttered silver or metal dish, smooth it over with a knife so as to obtain a dome-shaped form, and bake in a very moderate oven for about twelve minutes or more and serve immediately. Any other flavor than vanilla can be substituted. Some fresh strawberries or similar fruit previously sugared can be put on the bottom of the dish. To make the omelette souffle a success two things have to be taken into consideration. First, that the whites of the eggs are beaten to a stiff froth, and second, that the mixing together of the whites and yolks of the eggs be done very carefully with a flat wooden spoon.

OMELETTE CELESTINE.
Break up some macaroons in small bits, mix them with the same quantity of strawberry jam, add a little Curacao and warm slightly. Make an omelette of the size required, fill with the preparation and turn it over on the plate. Surround the omelette with lady fingers, and with a paper cornet filled with sweetened whipped cream decorate each lady finger. Put powdered sugar over the omelette and burn it with a red-hot poker on top. Five macaroons, three tablespoonfuls of strawberry jam, six lady fingers, five eggs sufficient for three persons.

Pour boiling water on half a cup of shredded codfish, drain and mix it with the thickened milk. Then mix the whole with one pint of cold boiled potatoes chopped fine. Put a tablespoonful butter in the spider, when hot turn in the fish and cook slowly until a thick brown crust has formed; then fold over and turn out on a hot platter. Garnish with curls of fried bacon and parsley.

1 speck of salt. 1 egg.
1 speck of pepper. ½ teaspoon butter.

Soak the bread crumbs in the milk for fifteen minutes, then add the salt and pepper. Separate the yolk and the white of the egg and beat until light. Add the yolk to the bread and milk and cut in the white. Turn in the heated buttered pan and cook until set. Fold and turn on heated dish.

ASPARAGUS OMELET.

1 cup white sauce.

Follow any of the above omelet recipes. Make white sauce. Add asparagus, drained and rinsed, to the white sauce, spread some of the mixture over half of the baked omelet, fold over the other half, turn on platter and pour over the rest of the sauce. Use the cut asparagus. Cooked peas, cauliflower, or remnants of finely chopped cooked chicken, veal or ham may be used in place of the asparagus.
EGGS AND FISH.
Eggs with fish for Friday luncheons. Four hard boiled eggs, a dozen shrimps, two boned anchovies, two tablespoonfuls of butter, and one tablespoonful of white sauce are required for this dish. Shell the eggs, cut each in halves roundways, take out the yolks, put them in mortar with the shrimps and anchovies, and pound all to a smooth paste. Next rub the mixture through a sieve, put it back in the mortar with the butter and sauce, pound smoothly and season carefully. Fill the whites of egg with this mixture. Arrange with lettuce and olives.

EGGS A LA BENEDICT.
Poach the eggs, fry or broil as many pieces of ham as eggs, the ham having been cut in circles two and one-half inches in diameter. Split some English muffins in two, toast and butter them, then put the ham on the muffins, the eggs on top of the ham, and cover the whole with Hollandaise sauce. This sauce can be substituted by a cream sauce with the yolk of an egg stirred into it. One egg for one person sufficient for a light meal.

EGGS A LA MEYERBEER.
Fry four eggs, then cut with a round cutter so that an even ring of the white of the egg is left around the yolk. Fry four small sausages, split and broil four small lamb kidneys, garnish the eggs with these two articles, then pour the blood that accumulates in the cavity of the kidney over the eggs and pour a little rich gravy around the whole. For two or four.

EGGS A LA CALCUTTA.
Arrange a border of steamed rice on a hot serving platter, leaving a nest in center. Slice six hard cooked eggs; dispose in the nest, and pour over one cup of thin, white sauce, to which is added one cup Edam cheese cut in small pieces.
Season highly with salt and cayenne, sprinkle all lightly with paprika. It will require one and one-half cups rice for the border.

OMELET AU FROMAGE.

Beat thoroughly six eggs. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter in a sauce pan and pour in the eggs, seasoned with salt and pepper. Sprinkle over them one-half cup of Parmesan cheese or grated American cheese. Shake the pan gently to prevent burning, while the center is still soft, lift half of the omelet on to a plate and turn the other half over it.

This is good.

SCRAMBLED EGGS CHASSEUR.

Remove from water; invert on plate to drain; melt butter in a sauce-pan; add onion; cook three minutes; add mushrooms and ham; cook mixture one minute; then moisten with sufficient brown sauce to spread; season highly with salt, pepper and cayenne. Line each pepper with a thin

CURRIED EGGS.

Boil eight eggs hard, and cut into thick slices. Cook together in a saucepan a tablespoonful of butter and a heaping tablespoonful of flour into which has been stirred a teaspoonful of curry powder. Stir until smooth, then add a large cup of skimmed soup stock and cook, stirring all the time, to a smooth sauce. If too thick, add more stock.

Add salt and pepper and a pint of water, boil until the sliced potatoes are soft, then add a pint of sweet milk, and when it comes to a boil add three eggs which have had the yolks and whites beaten separately. Let remain but one minute over fire after the eggs are added. Then set well back on the stove.

EGGS L'AIGLON.

To make this delectable dish the eggs are boiled hard, as many as one wants. They are then cut across in halves, the yolks removed and a little clip cut off each end to make the halves stand well.

Then a stuffing is made from a boiled pepper, chopped fine, and placed in a bowl that has been rubbed hard with garlic. One small onion minced very fine is mixed with the pepper and the yolks of the eggs have been mashed with a little olive oil and blended into the whole with a seasoning of salt, a speck of mustard and a breath of celery seed.
